

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of having the son of the Secretary of State in charge of things!

When one broadcasting entity uses our public airwaves to broadcast as definitively an anti-someone message as has been planned by Sinclair, it is an indication that those faces alongside the "throne" of the President of the Senate ain't no joke!

You lot were fast enough at slapping ClereSound with a ludicrous fine for airing Howard Stern, but you have no indication of trying to be proactively fair and also stopping. censuring Sinclair for airing an already-discredited programme.

NOT that I think this little protest will have ANY effect on "King Michael" and his court or merry pranksters, but I, for one, am bloody well peeved by this!

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
